BPA ORDERING
OFFICIAL
TRAINING

Purpos e

- Is to provide you, our customer, the information and knowledge to perform as an Ordering Official for your unit's established Blanket Purchase Orders (BPA's)
- What is a BPA?
  - A simplified acquisition method of filling repetitive needs for supplies or services by establishing "charge accounts" with qualified vendors
  - Reduce administrative burden of always writing AF Form 9's.
- Types of BPA's
  - Centralized - Contracting Office use only
  - Decentralized - Most common type, as approved Ordering Officials (customers) dictate how quickly orders are placed

Establishing a BPA

- Simple obtain letter from your Unit Commander requesting establishment of a BPA and training of unit Ordering Officials, stating:
  - Type of supplies/services required
  - Statement of Work
    - What the contractor is expected to provide
  - Recommended source(s)
- Follow up with funding document

BPA Price List

- All BPA's shall have an APPROVED price list
  - Must be approved by the Contingency Contracting Officer (CCO)
- Each price list will reflect effective and expiration period

Who Places Calls

- Only those designated by requesting Unit Commander
- Only those trained by the Contracting Office
- Formally appointed by CCO in writing
  - For a specific command (e.g. CENTCOM, ARCENT)
  - For a specific period of time (e.g. deployment cycle)
  - To buy specific items (e.g. expendable office supplies)

Funding Issues

- AF Form 9 and subsequent funds increase letter(s)
- Tracking Funds: Call Register
- NOTE: ALWAYS ENSURE FUNDS ARE AVAILABLE PRIOR TO PLACING ANY CALLS!!! NEVER OVER OBLIGATE
- Fiscal Year End - funds usually will expire on 30 Sep
- Remaining funds (if applicable) will be de-

Dollar Limitations

- Ordering Officers dollar limitation per call is $25,000 in a OCONUS deployed environment
- All calls over $25,000 must be brought to CCO for signature/procurement
  - Price comparison is required for purchase of over $25,000
  - Memo for record of this comparison must accompany Call Sheet
- Do not split requirements to stay under your dollar limitation, just complete your call sheet and bring it to the contracting officer
